The Appomattox Raiders closed out their 1971 football season with a 10-0 win over the Altavista Colonels in a Seminole District game that was the final game for both teams. It was homecoming for the Raiders and gave them a record of 8-2 overall for the season and 5-2 in the district. The lost dropped Altavista to a 6-4 overall and a 4-2 district mark.

It was a hard-hitting contest that saw the Raiders lose the ball three times on fumbles and Altavista turned it over two times that way, also. The Raiders looked strong in the opening quarter as they took the kickoff and started on their own 30 yard line. They drove to the six yard line of Altavista and fumbled and Franklin recovered the fumble for the Colonels. On the second play the Colonels fumbled and Steve Lawson recovered for the Raiders and Appomattox had the ball on the four with a first down, but a strong colonel defense held the Raiders on the one foot line and took over. A strong Raiders defense allowed the Colonels nine yards in three tries and forced them to punt and Appomattox got the ball back at mid-field and started to drive again. They drove to the 13 of Altavista and with 8:43 left in the second quarter, the kicking specialist for Appomattox Jimmy Chandler booted a 30 yard field goal to give Appomattox a 3-0 lead. The rest of the second quarter was an exchange of punts between the two teams as defense became the name of the game.

The third quarter was also defense but toward the last of the quarter Appomattox punted and the Colonls started on their own 48. They drove to the 35 of Appomattox as the quarter ran out and the Raiders defense held on a fourth down. The Raiders drove 65 yards in eight plans with the aid of a 15 yard penalty as quarterback Bobby Layne swept the end on a two yard touchdown run and Jimmy Chandler kicked the point after for a 10-0 lead with 8:01 left in the game. It was then defense again as neither team could drive thereafter.

Mike McCormick led the rushing for the Raiders with 50 yards on 18 carries and Jimmy Chandler had 48 yards on 15 carries, which was below both of their averages in other games.

The Raider defense was spearheaded by Lee Conner, a senior, who had 14 unassisted tackles and was in or many more as he played an outstanding game in finishing out his high school football. Steve Lawson, Steve Almond and Dennis Wilkerson, also all seniors, playing in their last game, had a combined 18 tackles and also in on many more, an average of six each. Almond and Lawson both kept a lot of pressure on the quarterback all night long. Phillip Goode also had a lot of pressure as he got in quite a few times to run the quarterback out of the pocket or either got the tackle. Lawson and Conner each had a fumble recovery for Appomattox.

Danny Clark led the Colonels with 37 yards rushing in 12 carries. Jerome Pannell, one of the leading Colonel runners was held to only 27 yards in eight carries. The Altavista defense was led by Jerome Pannell, Herbert Lanier, Franklin and Hogan.

The Raider defensive backs also played an outstanding game as they only allowed five pass completions in 20 attempts for only 30 yards. Only one of these was completed long, that one a 35 toss in the fourth quarter.

This was the second year in a row that the Raider defense has shutout the Colonels. Last year's score was a 0-0 tie at Altavista, but this one made it a good finish as it was before a homecoming crowd and also in ideal football weather.

Spirit of - '71 Latin Style

Latin Club members of Appomattox County High School labeled their float "Spirit of '71" (above) for the recent Homecoming parade Friday, November 5. That '71 could have been several centuries ago, if spectators are to believe the Roman-type costumes worn by Latin Club members. David Jones is president this year of the Latin Club which set out on the parade with an interesting amalgamation of old-new cultures in combining football figures and ancient-style shields and robes.

Christmas Seals Go To Washington

The 1971 Christmas Seal Campaign opened in Virginia on November 10 with the presentation of this year's Christmas Seals to Senator William B. Spong, Jr., and Senator Harry F. Byrd, Jr., in Washington, D. C.

Visiting the senators' offices to present Christmas Seals were the state's Honorary Christmas Seal Campaign Chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. David Kilgore and Muriel McAuley of the Barksdale Theatre in Hanover. Mrs. James C. Rea, Jr., president of the Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, accompanied the chairmen.

Introducing the chairmen to the U.S. Senators, Mrs. Rea said, "Our state Christmas Seal Campaign Chairmen represent the millions of volunteer workers throughout the nation who generously give of the time all year-round to make the annual Campaign possible.

"Without their efforts, TB-RD associations in Virginia and the nation would find it difficult to function. Citizens have always recognized the importance of the Christmas Seal tradition by supporting the Campaign.

"Funds are needed to carry on programs aimed at controlling tuberculosis and respiratory diseases. Medical education and research need our support, as do other program emphases such as air conservation and antismoking.

"The use of Christmas Seals on holiday mail will ensure the continuance of work being conducted by all TB-RD associations for the entire respiratory health of our citizens."

Following the group's visit with the senators, they were given a tour of the headquarters of the Potomac Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association at Fairfax, where they met with volunteers working on the area's Christmas Seal Campaign.

Here's Kim!

Kim Maxwell (above) strikes a spirited pose as mascot of the Appomattox County High School Varsity cheerleaders. Kim, 6 years old, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maxwell, won out in competition for the position of mascot and she has been both faithful AND vivacious as the Raider cheerleaders led fans through a good season for the local team. Kim is one of "Patty Sue's Twirlers"; she loves dogs, including "Music", a cocker spaniel. She likes music (without the quote marks), too, and has begun piano lessons. So, here's Kim!—a bright-eyed addition to the attractive group of cheerleaders at the local high school.
